

MEDICAL STUDENT EVALUATION

FOURTH YEAR ROTATION

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE - UTHSCSA

STUDENT:
ROTATION: MEDI 7003 Global Health Elective

PERIOD:
LOCATION:

DATES:
EVALUATOR:

PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES	UNSATISFACTORY Failed to meet expectations	MARGINAL Below expectations	GOOD Consistently met expectations	VERY GOOD Consistently met and at times exceeded expectations	SUPERIOR Consistently exceeded expectations	Unable to Evaluate Patient Care: overall quality of patient care provided by the student. Includes skills in data-gathering by history and physical examination, oral and written case presentations, and the level of medical care delivered to the patients.
Medical and Public Health Knowledge: overall knowledge of clinical medicine, basic pathophysiology, and clinical reasoning. Also, level of insight into public health, diseases associated with poverty, and tropical medicine.
Educational Initiative Level of intellectual curiosity and enthusiasm for pursuing self-directed supplementary reading.
Interpersonal Communication and Professional Behavior: Ability of student to integrate into new culture and health staff team, with respect and openness towards other health care delivery systems. Extent to which students are able to connect with patients and their families and communicate respect for patients' feelings, needs, and rights.

COMMENTS (REQUIRED)

Overall impression of student's performance including strengths, areas student should continue to develop, and specific concerns (if any) about student's performance:

ATTENDANCE: Complete attendance is required on clinical rotations.

Indicate, if any, the number of days and reason the student was absent: _____

Evaluator: _____

Return completed form to: Dr. Ruth Berggren, berggrenr@uthscsa.edu